

When	Where	No. of Particiapnts	Remarks
Jan 2012	Golden Jubilee School, Jalna	42	The very first Suryakumbh. After 12 hours of theory session Children made their own Solar Ovens from Cardboard and then cooked Cake, Cookies, Pulao, Soup, Khichadi, and many more delicacies to their Parents and Teachers surprise
Jan 2013	J.E.S College, Jalna	2250	First Mega Event, children from 107 Schools from 40 km radius of Jalna district participated and cooked oil free Sabudana khichadi using their own made Solar Oven. Limca Book certified it as World’s Largest Solar Cooking Festival
Jan 2014	Keshav Srushti, Thane	3639	The Guinness World Record certified Largest Solar Cooking Class was attended by children from over 52 schools and it became a Globally known festival
Jan –Feb 2015	Multiple Locations, Mumbai & Thane	>15000	A decentralized effort to spread the message across millions was held over a months time. On the very first day over 8000 children celebrated SunKranti by making their own solar ovens and cooking noodles using them.